1 Street, road and place names should reflect the traditional, historic names and any new names should reflect the purposes of the places in the past and /or prominent, widely respected local people.

2 New housing numbers (starts and completions) should be published quarterly within (say) 60 days of the quarter end. Any difficulty in compiling such data (for example because developers fail to promptly report substantial completion) should result in penalties at a meaningful level. Such delay can defer S106 payments, council tax and disrupt data in which there is a public interest.

Regards

Andrew
